[redacted] Had a good talk with Chairman Holifield concerning the Director's briefing of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy on Wednesday at 2:00 P.M. The Chairman said he had no requirements or suggestions over and above those which had been passed on to us by Staff Director Conway. He did say, however, that the Director should feel free to use his "technical people" in his presentation to the Joint Committee and to ask them to field questions during the question and answer period if he so desired. Holifield said there was some question as to whether he would be able to attend the meeting himself since it will be necessary for him to take his wife to Baltimore in the morning. (Mrs. Holifield has had recent surgery for a separated retina.) Holifield was very cordial and talked at some length about [redacted]
